

VOTER GUIDE: NOVEMBER 2018

Ohio Statewide

Gubernatorial

this position is hella important this year because this governor will be involved with redistricting (hopefully ending partisan gerrymandering) after the 2020 Census and also the governor runs shit

Rich Cordray & Betty Sutton (D)

- pro-choice
- supports legalization of recreational marijuana
- adamantly opposed Kavanaugh confirmation
- supports LGBTQIA+ rights
- advocates for common sense gun laws
- pro-federal finance regulation

Mike DeWine & Jon Husted (R)

- would support a 'heartbeat bill' (super pro-life)
- current Attorney General
- against the legalization of marijuana
- opposed gay marriage legalization
- recently flipped saying that he'll keep Medicaid in Ohio now

US Senate

this position is always important because there are only 100 US senators and they serve 6 year terms and are literally in charge of making laws that you have to follow

Sherrod Brown (D)

- currently in office
- pro-choice
- strong supporter of labor unions
- pro-immigration, supports DACA
- supports increasing the min. wage

Jim Renacci (R)

- consistent Trump supporter
- hates gay marriage and abortion
- pro-border wall
- wants to repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act

Attorney General

this position matters because the AG can sue the feds or private industry on the state's behalf for things like opioids and immigration laws

• Steve Dettelbach (D)

- Former US Attorney
- wants to increase hate crime protections
- supports increase in state spending for police training

Dave Yost (R)

- current state auditor
- wants to give teachers guns in classrooms
- fiscally conservative

Auditor of State

this position matters because gerrymandering honeys

Zach Space (D)

Keith Faber (R)

Secretary of State

this position matters because ahem, redistricting committee ever heard of it?

Kathleen Clyde (D)

- big on protecting voter rights
- wants more secure elections
- better cybersecurity for government
- hops to end gerrymandering

Frank LaRose (R)

- wants to identify voter fraud
- wants to save tax dollars
- supports small business
